NOTIFICATION

File No. PT2-HFW-SCH-NRHM-0005-2021- 6096 /H, Dated 16-03-2023

With a view to strengthening the health care delivery system and providing health care of super-specialty nature to all the needy people of remote districts, where health care is unreachable or difficult to reach, Government have launched a new scheme namely "Mukhya Mantri Bayu Swasthya Seva (MBBSS)". Under this scheme, it is planned that a team of medical experts from Medical Colleges will move by air to far-flung districts along with necessary equipment to provide super specialty medical treatment and therapeutic interventions to the identified patients. To begin with, the scheme is being implemented in four districts such as Nuapada, Kalahandi, Nabarangpur, and Malkangiri in pilot mode.

The Scheme will be implemented over a period of 05 years from 2022-23 to 2026-27 with an outlay of Rs.3,25,26,479/-. The detailed budget outlay for five years is annexed as Annexure-A with the following guidelines.

1. The Additional DMET (O) shall be the State Nodal Officer for the scheme. Prof. (Dr.) Umakant Satapathy, Addl. DMET(O) is declared as the State Nodal Officer.
2. There shall be one Technical Expert Committee taking the DMET (O), DHS(O), Director, SIHFW(O), and the State Nodal Officer, who will examine the different issues as and when arise and suggest appropriate action by Government.
3. Each district shall have one District Nodal Officer for coordinating the camp.
4. The Fund shall be released by DMET (O) to the CDM & PHO of the concerned districts as and when required as per the approved budget outlay.
5. All activities of camps and modalities of expenditure shall be done as per the guidelines already approved by Government in Health & FW Department and communicated by DMET(O) vide letter No.38 dated 03.01.2023.
6. The camp schedule, selection of districts, selection of experts, and movement of experts shall be done by the Mukhya Mantri Bayu Swasthya Seva Cell in DMET Wing under the supervision of the State Nodal Officer. The flight schedules shall be finalized by the State Nodal Officer in consultation with the Commerce and Transport Department.
